After school clubs/Communication
My child usually attends breakfast club and the Friday afternoon provision, mixing with children much older, I hope that this is supervised closely.	Breakfast club adult ratio is above the expected level. On Friday afternoon pupils are split into two cohorts one for lower school and one for upper school. The adult ratio exceeds what is expected.

I dislike the dismissal of after school clubs. As you have 4/5 different clubs being dismissed from the main door and I feel children are not always aware to stay in. It is very busy and messy.	New arrangements have been made so that the clubs use different exit points.
We as parents are not always informed when our child leaves site for Friday activities until after the event.	Teachers to notify parents when pupils are going off site. Teachers to send out a copy of the timetable at the start of the new Autumn term.
My kids haven't got confident to approach a member of staff if they got hurt by another child.	All classes have multiple opportunities to check-in throughout the day and are regularly encouraged in class and assemblies to share worries or concerns with safe adults. If parents are concerned that their child is being hurt or bullied, we ask that they contact the class teacher or main office. All classes to ensure signage and regular reminders of who their safe adults are.
Curriculum
I would like school teach kids more about others nationality and being respectful. I would like school teach kids more about others nationality and being respectful.	More signage has been placed around school to promote diversity. Pupils have spent a term looking at the theme of Diversity. Diversity is a cross cutting theme of our curriculum which teachers plan for.
33% of respondents did not know about our online safety work and how to keep their children safe online.	Our pupil digital leaders will work on this action point.
Safety
Parking at the school is still a huge safety concern for most parents, regardless of the good intention of "walk your children to school" the practicality of this is not possible for most working parents (nor with the Welsh weather). The traffic and parking provisions need a proper review before a child is knocked over crossing on the pelican cross at the main school entrance. Pick up points at other locations such as the fairways with a communal bus to school for children could be one consideration but given the cost implications would likely never happen, that said the school need to be proactive before something happens rather expecting the problem to just go away on its own.	Mr Dyer works with Pembrokeshire County Council on safety around the school site, including traffic.
Around half of respondents said that their child does not what to do in the event of an emergency (ie. Fire or external threat.)	Continue regular drills and notify parents when these have taken place, so that they can discuss with their child.
